Lamentations at the Tomb of Christ

Selected Verses

First Stasis

Ἦχος λ̅ π̅ ϊ̈ Πα

Verse:

Blessed art Thou, O Lord, teach me Thy statues.

Verse:

Blessed are the blameless in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord.

1 In a grave they laid Thee, O my Life and my Christ; and thē ar - mies of thē An - gels were sore a - mazed, as they sang the praise of Thy sub - mis - sive love.

Verse:

Blessed are they that search out His testimonies;
with their whole heart shall they seek after Him.

2 How, O Life, canst Thou die? Or a - bide in a grave? For Thou dost de - stroy the king - dom of death, O Lord, and Thou rais - est up the dead of Ha - des' realm.

Verse:

For they that work iniquity have not walked in His ways.

3 Now we mag - ni - fy Thee, O Lord Je - sus, our King; and we ven - er - ate Thy Pas - sion and Bur - i - al, where - by from cor-rup - tion we have been re - deemed.

Verse:

Thou hast enjoined Thy commandments, that we should keep them most diligently.

4 Thou Who didst es - tab - lish thē earth's bounds dost now dwell in a lit - tle grave, O Je - sus, Thou King of all, Who dost call the dead to leave their graves and rise.

Verse:

Would that my ways were directed to keep Thy statues.

5 O my dear Christ Je - sus, King and Rul - er of all, why to them that dwelt in Ha - des didst Thou de - scend? Was it not to set the race of mor - tals free?

Verse:

Then shall I not be ashamed, when I look on all Thy commandments.

6 Lo, the Sover-eign Rul-er of cre - a - tion is dead and is bur - ied in a tomb nev - er used be-fore, He that emp-tied all the graves of all their dead.

Verse:

I will confess Thee with uprightness of heart,
when I have learned the judgments of Thy righteousness.

7 In a grave they laid Thee, O my Life and my Christ. Yet, behold now, by Thy death, death is strick-en down, and Thou mak - est life to pour forth on the world.

Verse:

I will keep Thy statutes; do not utterly forsake me.

8 Thou, O Christ, wast num-bered with men of e - vil deeds like an e - vil - do - er, here - by re - deem-ing us from thē ancient schem-er's e - vil works and deeds.

Verse:

Wherewithal shall a young man correct his ways? By keeping Thy words.

9 Lo, how fair His beau - ty! Nev - er man was so fair! Yet how doth He seem a dead man be - reft of form, though all na - ture's beau - ty had Him as its source.

Verse:

With my whole heart have I sought after Thee,
cast me not away from Thy commandments.

10 Sav - iour how could Ha - des, bear Thy Pres - ence di - vine, and not ra - ther be de - mol - ished in ut - ter gloom, blind - ed by the splen - dour of Thy daz - zling light?

Verse:

In my heart have I hid Thy sayings that I might not sin against Thee.

11 O my sweet Lord Je - sus, my Sal - va - tion, my Light: How art Thou now hid with - in a dark sep - ul - chre? O long - suffer - ing sur - pas - sing hu - man speech!

Verse:

Blessed art Thou, O Lord, teach me Thy statutes.

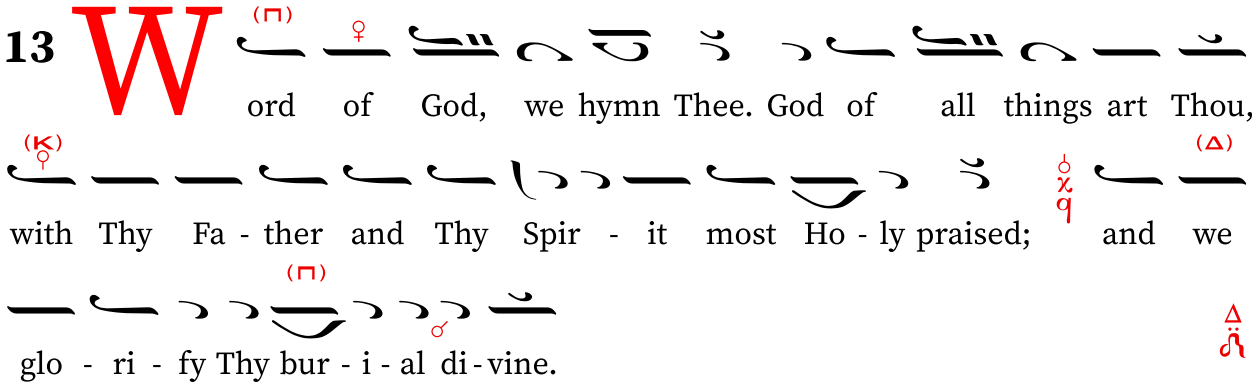
12 A n - gel - kind, O Mas - ter, and the bod - i - less hosts are be - wil - dered at the mys - ter - y, O my Christ, of Thy bur - i - al in - ef - fa - ble and strange.

Glory.

13 W

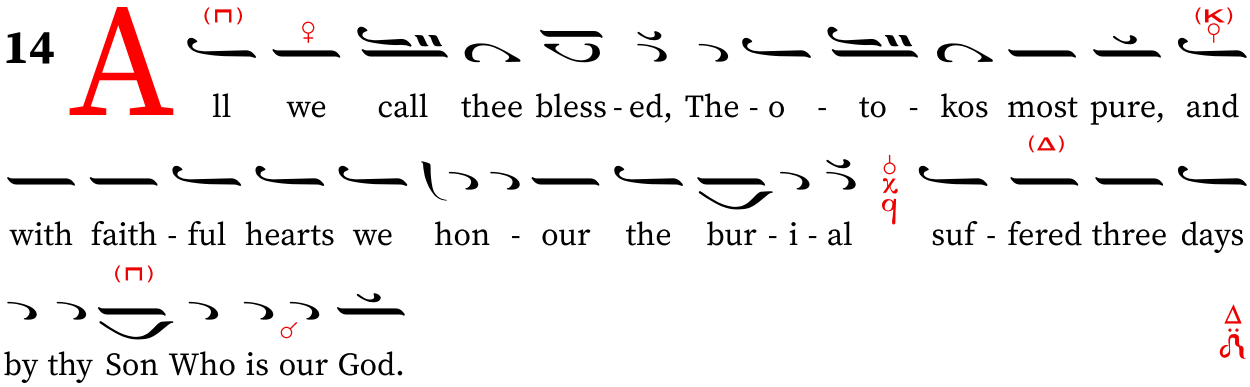


ord of God, we hymn Thee. God of all things art Thou, with Thy Fa - ther and Thy Spir - it most Ho - ly praised; and we glo - ri - fy Thy bur - i - al di - vine.

Both now.

Theotokion.

14 A



ll we call thee bless - ed, The - o - to - kos most pure, and with faith - ful hearts we hon - our the bur - i - al suf - fered three days by thy Son Who is our God.

And again by both choirs:

15 I n a grave they laid Thee, O

my Life and my Christ; and thē ar - mies of thē An - gels were sore a - mazed, as they sang the praise of Thy sub - mis - sive love.

Second Stasis

Ἦχος λ̅ π̅ ϊ̈ Πα

1 Right it is in-deed, * Life-be-stow-ing Lord, to mag-ni-fy Thee; for up-on the Cross were Thy most pure hands out-spread, and the strength of our dread foe hast Thou de-stroyed.

 Or the following:* Right it is in-deed,

Verse:

Thy hands have made me and fashioned me;
give me understanding and I will learn Thy commandments.

2 Right it is in-deed, Mak-er of all things, to mag-ni-fy Thee; for by Thy dear Pas-sion have we all now at-tained to dis-pas-sion, from cor-rup-tion now set free.

Verse:

They that fear Thee shall see me and be glad, for on Thy words have I set my hope.

3 Earth with trem - bling shook, and the sun con - cealed his face,

O Sav - iour, for the light un - wan - ing that hath shone forth from Thee with Thy Bod - y sank to dark - ness and the grave.

Verse:

I have known, O Lord, that Thy judgments are righteousness, and with truth hast Thou humbled me.

4 Thou hast slept, O Christ, in the grave the sleep that is life - giv -

- ing and hast raised up with Thy - self the whole race of man from the griev - ous and most heav - y sleep of sin.

Verse:

Let now Thy mercy be my comfort, according to Thy saying unto Thy servant.

5 O f all wo - man - kind, I a - lone gave birth to Thee with - out pain, said the Vir - gin; now, my Child, lo, I must en - dure pain un - bear - a - ble at Thy great suf - fer - ing.

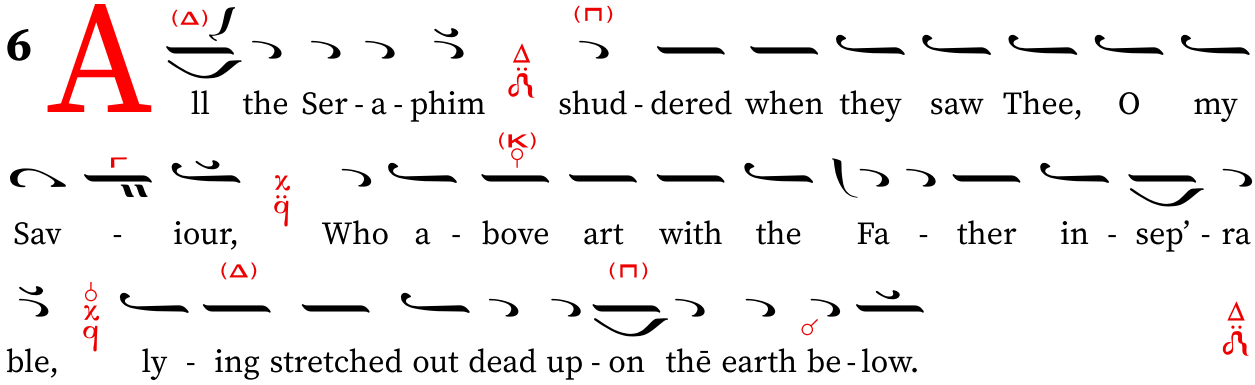
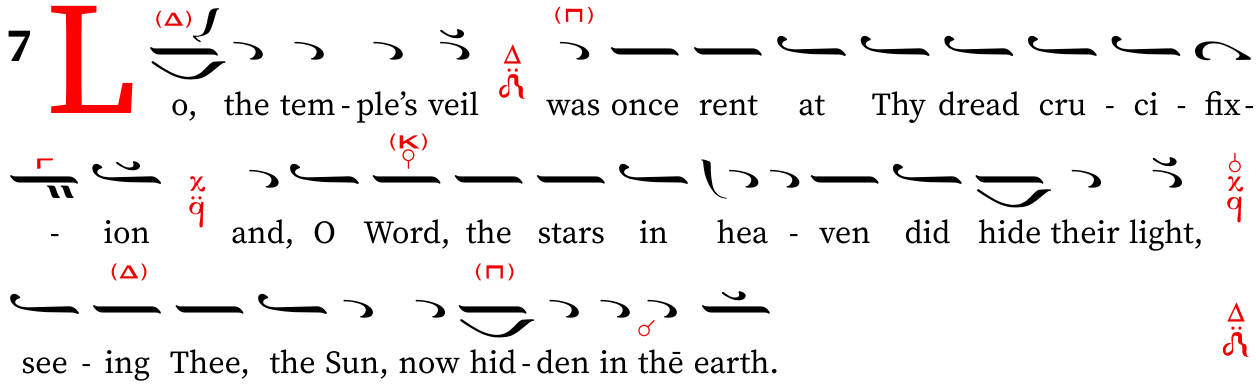
Verse:

Let Thy compassions come upon me and I shall live, for Thy law is my meditation.



Verse:

Let the proud be put to shame, for unjustly have they trangressed against me;
but as for me, I will ponder on Thy commandments.



Verse:

Let those that fear Thee return unto me, and those that know Thy testimonies.

Verse:

Let my heart be blameless in Thy statutes, that I may not be put to shame.

9 Thou, Who with Thy hand didst cre - ate man, hast sunk in thē earth's bos - om, that by Thine al - might - y pow - er and sover - eign strength, Thou might'st raise the mul - ti - tude of fall - en men.

Verse:

My soul fainteth for Thy salvation; on Thy words have I set my hope.

10 Come, let us now sing sa - cred dir - ges to our Christ Who die - - th, as once thy Myrrh - bear - ing wom - en did sing to Him, that with them we all might hear the word: Re - joice!

Verse:

Mine eyes are grown dim with waitings for Thine oracle;
they say: When wilt Thou comfort me?

11 Truly, Thou, O Word, art thē in - ex - haust - i - ble Myrrh poured____ forth. Where - fore, the myrrh - bear - ing wom - en brought pre - cious myrrh un - to Thee, the Liv - ing, as un - to the dead.

Translation © 2021 Holy Transfiguration Monastery, Brookline, MA. All rights reserved. Adaptation © 2024 Fr. Jeremy Troy.

Verse:

For I am become like a wine-skin in the frost; yet Thy statutes have I not forgotten.

12 A t Thy bur - i - al, Thou, O Christ, didst shat - ter Ha - des' king- - dom. Where - fore, by Thy death, hast Thou thus put death to death, to re - deem out of cor - rup - tion those of earth.

Glory.

13 O E - ter - nal God, Word co - un - o - rig - i - nate, and Spir - it: Make firm Thou the faith and strength of the Or - tho- dox a - gainst her - e - sy and er - ror, O Good One.

Both now.

Theotokion.

14 B irth - giv - er of Life, O most blame - less and most ho - ly Vir- - gin: Quell ev' - ry of - fence with - in our most Ho - ly Church, bless - ing us with peace for ev - er, O Good Maid.
